Destination Imagination

Article I- Name and Purpose

Destination Imagination has been established for the purpose of promoting creativity and teamwork at UMBC through solving a variety of interdisciplinary challenges and presenting the teams’ solutions in competitions. In order to solve these challenges, team members must apply skills from multiple areas such as engineering, acting, design, art, music and more. Teams of no more than 7 students will have the option to choose from one of six challenges all of which have a theatrical aspect along with a more specialized area. Two are engineering focused, one focuses on the sciences, another the arts, another improvisation and the last community service. In addition to the team’s main challenge they will also be presented with an "Instant Challenge" which assesses the teams’ creative, critical thinking, and teamwork abilities. Ultimately, the teams will be required to present their challenge solutions at the Destination Imagination Global Finals. Teams will also be actively involved with Maryland DI to promote the organization.
