Dog-Collar Comedy Troupe

Article I- Name and Purpose

Dog-Collar Comedy Troupe has been established for the purpose of performing in several independent improv shows each semester, as well as a variety of smaller appearances at the request of other student organizations. The shows will consist of a multitude of improv games played with suggestions from the audience.

Article II- Scope

This organization is subject to the jurisdiction of the Student Government Association of the University of Maryland, Baltimore County, as well as to the President of the University and his/her designee.

Article III- Membership

A UMBC student can become a member of this organization by:

- Membership will be open to all members of the Jewish faith as defined by the “Mishna Berurah”, the Jewish Code of Law compiled by Rabbi Yisrael Meir Kagan. This will be determined through interviews with one of the officers. Anyone wishing to join that does not fulfill this criterion will need a simple majority vote by the officers.

Membership in this organization will not be denied because of race, color, age, sex, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, physical or mental disability, disabled veteran or veteran status, national origin, or religion.
